EUROPEAN COMMISSION

SEVENTH FRAMEWORK PROGRAMME

CENTRUM EDUKACJI STATYSTYCZNEJ GUS

SAMPLE

Small Area Methods for Poverty and Living Condition Estimates

SEMINAR

Presentation of Sample Project

Warsaw, 24 march 2010
9h30 - 13h00

Central Statistical Office

Al. Niepodleglosci 208, room 730 (7th floor)

9h30 - 9h45 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION
Prof. Janusz Witkowski, vice president of Central Statistical Office

Chairman - Prof. Tomasz Panek, Warsaw School of Economic

9h45 - 11h15
THE METHODOLOGY
"Small Area Methodology Developed within the SAMPLE Project"
Prof. Monica Pratesi, University of Pisa
Prof. Domingo Morales, University of Elche

"Cumulation and pooling to improve sampling precision"
Prof. Vijay Verma, University of Siena

"Comparison of two bootstrap methods of standard error estimation for some poverty measures"
Prof. Jan Kordos, Warsaw School of Economic

THE PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF THE MODEL AND ORGANIZATIONAL CONSEQUENCES
"Towards the construction of a permanent Observatory system to monitor poverty, vulnerability and social exclusion: the involvement of public and third sector organizations"
Ms. Gabriella Daniele, Ms. Donatella Donadel, Mr. Claudio Rognini
General Direction Province of Pisa

11h15 - 11h45 COFFEE BREAK

11h45 - 12h05
THE INSTRUMENTS
"Engaging local community: a data - centered social network application"
Mr. Moreno Toigo, SIMURG Company

12h05 - 12h25
"Sample in the European context: skills and perspectives"
Mr. Alessandro Damiani, Dg Research

12h25 - 13h00
Questions and Answers

SAMPLE
Small Area Methods for Poverty and Living Condition Estimates
Proj. n° 217565 - FP7 - SSH-2007-1

www.sample-project.eu